Flawed MVG caused huge revenue loss

₹125.99cr blow to state exchequer due to undervaluation of just 100 plots

No 'commercial' plot exists in Puri despite the presence of hotels and restaurants along the beach-front

POST NEWS NETWORK

Bhubaneswar, Sept 14: The Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG), in its report tabled in the Assembly Wednesday, has flagged large-scale defects in fixation and revision of Market Value Guidelines (MVG) for immovable properties in urban areas under the Odisha Stamp (Amendment) Rules, 2001 from 2018-19 to 2021-22, resulting in huge loss to the state exchequer on stamp duty and registration fees.

Upon reviewing the status of compliance with the Rules for urban plots and buildings located under the jurisdiction of 14 sub-registrar (SR)/district sub-registrar (DSR) offices, the auditor found although Rules entail Valuation Committees to have Expert Valuers (EV) as members – a practice followed by most of the states - there was no provision in Odisha to prescribe the technical qualifications or eligibility criteria for EV.

"As a result, the Valuation Committees were constituted without an expert member with formal credentials and recognition," it said.

The Valuation Committees had not ensured collection and compilation of relevant data in the forms prescribed by the Rules.

Although the data included list of 'commercial' plots under the jurisdiction of each SR/DSR office, key factors like significant economic growth and presence of commercial establishments in urban areas, had not been taken into consideration.

For example, Puri district did not have any official commercial plots listed despite the presence of hotels and restaurants along the beach-varied sources - Odisha Real Estate Regulatory Authority, online real estate portals and market value quotations from real estate property developers and brokers— to identify properties with potential for high market value, the Valuation Committees relied on the only source of data received from the Revenue Inspectors (RI).

These inputs for the value of properties, submitted by the RIs were based on the documented land records, instead of the basis of actual end use, as seen during joint physical in-

The auditor noticed non-compliance with the provisions of the Odisha Land Reforms Act for conversion of agricultural land for nonagricultural purposes which had resulted in plots having functional restaurants and branded stores on them being incorrectly categorised in the registration offices as 'agricultural', 'irrigated', 'orchard' plots, having less value for the purpose of revising MVG.

The Rules and executive instructions for valuation of buildings did not have provisions to take into account amenities, such as modern interiors, modular kitchens, wall fittings and fixtures, which would have a significant impact on the market value of the individual apartments/dwelling units in the

The CAG also noticed that none of the district Collectors had ordered special revision of MVG by invoking the enabling provisions of the Rules, even in cases such as establishment of a new greenfield airport at Puri, which had resulted in sudden and significant land appreciation around the proposed site.

This apart, the Inspector General of Registration, Odisha had not invoked the enabling provisions of the Rules to issue administrative instructions, for effective implementation of the Rules. These provisions in the Rules were intended to serve as crucial internal controls, to prevent leakage of government revenue, but had not been invoked for the purpose

Moreover, the CAG engaged the services of an EV, registered with the I-T department under the Wealth Tax Act and empanelled with the State Bank of India, for the market valuation of 100 selected immovable properties, under the jurisdiction of these 14 SR/DSR offices

It found the absolute difference between the fair market value (FMV) and MVG ranged from ₹62 lakh to ₹72 crore in the case of these plots. The difference was higher than ₹10 crore in case of 59 plots

The revenue implication towards loss of stamp duty and registration fees on account of undervaluation of these 100 plots (land component alone, without considering the valuation of the buildings constructed on them) came out to be ₹125.99 crore, as per the CAG report.

CM should submit proposal to Centre within 24 hrs: BJD

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Bhubaneswar, Sept 14: Opposition Biju Janata Dal (BJD) Saturday demanded that Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi submit a proposal for setting up a bench of Orissa High Court to the Centre within 24

BJD MP Sasmit Patra, along with party spokespersons Lelin Mohanty, Priyabrata Majhi and Tumbanath Panda, alleged in a press conference that the state government had backtracked on several announcements made in the recent past.

"During the recent Assembly session, the Chief Minister firmly stated that there was no justification for establishing a bench of Orissa High Court in any part of the state. However, under pressure from his party leaders, the CM next day took back his statement and said the matter was under consideration," Patra said.

Patra, a Rajya Sabha MP, said he had

August 8 raised the issue in Parliament to which Union Law Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal had responded saying that the matter lies with the state government, which would take a decision and convey it to the Centre.

Although three months have passed since Majhi took charge as the Chief Minister, he has not taken any decision on the proposal to set up a High Court bench, Patra alleged.

"Instead of taking a decision, Majhi took a U-turn under coercion and is making false promises," he alleged. BJP spokesperson Surath Biswal dismissed the allegation saying that the BJD did not recommend setting up a High Court bench during its 24 years in power and now wants the same done within 24 hours.

"The Chief Minister has already informed the Assembly that the matter is under consideration of the government," Biswal added

Labourer crushed to death

Jajpur/Dharmasala/Chadheidhara, Sept 14: A labourer was crushed to death under a huge pile of stones at Quarry No-4 on Rahadpur hill under Dharmasala tehsil in Jajpur district, Saturday. The deceased was identified as Aju Singh, 30, from Kuliana area of Mayurbhanj

The labourer was buried under the huge heap of stones which caved in due to blasting near the quarry owned by the leaseholder Sandip Chandak. The compressor machine and pipes were also crushed under the stones along with the labourer.

The incident allegedly occurred as the leaseholder was illegally extracting stones from the nearby quarry as the tehsil officials are yet to make a demarcation of the leased quarries.

On being informed, Jenapur police IIC Subhendu Kumar Sahu and Deputy Director, Minor Minerals department Jayprakash Nayak reached the spot and launched an investigation.

Notably, newly elected MLA of Dharmasala Himanshu Sekhar Sahu had written to the Dharmasala tehsildar to complete the demarcation of the leased quarries, June 8, 2024. Three months have passed since then, but

This is not the first instance of accidental loss of life in and around such quarries. Earlier, several labourers have died in many of the illegal quarries.

Three labourers were crushed to death under a huge stone and soil that came rolling down the Dankari hill under Dharmasala tehsil, May 16. However, authorities are yet to take any action against the accused quarry owner even after registration of a case in Jenapur police station.

Earlier, in a case filed before Orissa High Court, it was alleged that the tehsil officials are yet to lease out more than 60 quarries under the Dharmasala tehsil. As a result, fearing satellite mapping and penalty, some leaseholders are not extracting stones from their own quarries but illegally extracting stones from the non-leased quarries on the fringes of their quarries and making a windfall gain.

Several crusher units have come up in the illegal black stone quarries but the district administration and tehsil officials are staying mum despite being aware of the wrongdoings.

Villagers capture croc, hand it over to Forest dept

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Kendrapara, Sept 14: Forest personnel from Rajnagar faced the anger of villagers Saturday when they attempted to rescue an estuarine crocodile that had been tied to an electric pole by the locals.

The residents of Gajarajpur village under Rajnagar block had fished the crocodile out of a pond and tied it to an electric pole. The irate locals eventually handed over the crocodile to the Forest personnel, but only after receiving assurance that measures would be taken to prevent estuarine crocodiles from straying into the human settlements from their natural habitat.

The rescued crocodile was later released into the Baunsagadi river, which is known to be crocodile-infested, by the Forest personnel. The villagers claimed they had previously informed the Divisional Forest Officer (DFO) of the Rajnagar Mangrove (Forest) and Wildlife Division about a crocodile that had entered a villager's pond. Although Forest personnel had attempted to rescue the reptile earlier, they were unsuccessful in capturing it.

While clearing water hyacinth and weeds from the pond to catch fish, the locals netted a 5-foot-long estuarine crocodile. They tied the reptile with a rope to an electric pole along the village road.

Forest personnel rushed to the scene after being informed, but the villagers initially refused to hand over the crocodile. The reptile was eventually handed over after the Forest personnel assured the villagers that necessary steps would be taken to prevent further crocodile incursions into

Four arrested for killing python in Mayurbhani

POST NEWS NETWORK

Baripada, Sept 14: Forest department officials Friday arrested four individuals from Kathsirsi village of Kuliana section within the Deuli range under Baripada forest division in Mayurbhani district for killing a python that had strayed into the village from the Similipal sanctuary.

The action was taken after a disturbing video went viral on social media in which the individuals were seen killing and dragging the python, which is an endangered species (Schedule I).

The arrested individuals were identified as Barihal Marandi, 30, Babula Singh, 50, Mathura Marandi, 64, and Kama Marandi, 35, from Kathsirsi village in Bhawanipur panchayat under Kuliana police limits.

According to information received, a 10-footlong python was moving around in the village in search of food and attempted to attack a goat. At that moment, four people killed the python and started dragging it on the ground. Later, the accused divided the python's meat among themselves.

The Forest department officials arrested the accused for killing an endangered species and dividing its meat.

It is learnt that people, driven by superstitions, use python meat to prepare medicines. A Uma Mahesh, Divisional Forest Officer, Baripada stated that the crime scene will be recreated Sunday concerning the python's death.

He also mentioned that the wildlife criminals involved in the act have been arrested and body parts of the python have been seized. Although killing and consuming a snake listed in Schedule I under the Wildlife Protection Act is a serious crime, it is observed that the general public in the tribal-majority Mayurbhanj district is not aware of the law.

The presence of wildlife and domesticated animals is essential for environmental balance. For this reason, extensive public awareness campaigns should be conducted, and the wildlife crime laws should be strictly enforced, former wildlife conservationist Bhanumitra Acharya stated.

Ideology or Governance

hat is today India's dominant political force, the Bharatiya Janata Party, has had a history of putting a pause on its ideology for political benefit. It also discarded positions that became outdated in time. This aspect has become important today as we will look at towards the end of this column.

For instance in the 1950s as the Jana Sangh, the party opposed Dr Ambedkar's Hindu Code Bills because it did not accept the idea of divorce since Hindu marriages were eternal or the ending of joint families (at root it did not want women to participate in inheritance). This position vanished with time as divorce was normalised in Hindu society and nuclear families because common in cities.

More interesting is its formal relationship with Hindutva itself. In its 1996 manifesto, for the first time, the party used the word Hindutva. This was likely because a few months earlier, on 11 December 1995, the Supreme Court had declared that Hindutva as practised by the Shiv Sena was a way of life and using it in politics did not amount to an appeal to religion. That validated use of the word which, till that point in time, was mostly referred to negatively in the national media

There are eight references to 'Hindutva' in its 1998 manifesto, along with those to Article 370, a total ban on cow slaughter and a Uniform Civil Code. But the very next year, all of these were dropped. No Hindutva or 370 or cow slaughter or Uniform Civil Code. That 1999 manifesto has on the other hand five references to minorities, assuring them of full protection and the party's commitment to secularism. So what changed in that one year?

It was of course that now the BJP was now in office. Atal Bihari Vajpayee had partners in Mamata Baneriee, J Javalalithaa and George Fernandes among others. He sacrificed ideology for governance. The BJP won another term that year.

In the 2004 manifesto, this time issued as an NDA document, there is again no reference to Hindutya or to Uniform Civil Code. There is no reference to Article 370 The alliance called for an 'amicable reso lution' to the Ayodhya dispute.

Such shifts had been practised earlier also. In 1957, the party announced it would introduce "revolutionary changes" to the economic order, which "will be in keeping with Bharatiya values of life." However, these were not elaborated on nor was this theme of "revolutionary change" picked up again in any future manifesto.

In 1954, and again in 1971, the Jana Sangh resolved to limit the maximum income of all Indian citizens to ₹2,000 per month and the minimum to ₹100, maintaining a 20:1

ratio. It would continue working on reducing this gap till it reached 10:1 which was the ideal gap and all Indians could only have incomes inside this range based on their position. Additional income earned by individuals over this limit would be procured by the State for development needs "through contribution, taxation, compulsory loans and investment." The party would also limit the size of residential houses in cities and not allow plots of more than 1000 square yards. This continued under Vajpayee but then was dropped without explanation.

Most interestingly, the Jana Sangh said it would also repeal administrative detention laws which it said were absolutely in contradiction to individual liberty. This promise was made repeatedly in the 1950s. However by 1967 it began to qualify the demand and said that "care will be taken to ensure that fifth columnists and disruptionist elements are not allowed to exploit fundamental rights." In time, the Sangh and BJP became the most enthusiastic champions of preventive detention and laws like the UAPA.

In 1954, the party declared it would legislate that "tractors will be used only to break virgin soil. Their use for normal ploughing purposes will be discouraged." This was of course because it was trying to protect the bull and the ox from slaughter. Later, this was dropped without explaining why. In 1951, prohibition of cow slaughter was explained as something needed "to make the cow an economic unit of agricultural life." In 1954, the text was more religious and called cow protection a "pious duty.

Now, what does any of this have to do with the present? It is of course that at 240, Modi does not have the power he needs to continue doing what he had since 2014. Writer Pratap Bhanu Mehta has elaborated on this: "the prime minister is giving a sense of being in a total funk — unable to diagnose the reasons for his defeat, and unable to chart a new course. He is on the back-foot in Parliament, not just because the Opposition is stronger and Parliament is more representative. The ability to control has gone. By all accounts, for the first time in his political career, the ability to intuit popular sentiment has disappeared and he seems like a broken record, living on the power of his past slogans that have outlived their freshness and usefulness. The imprimatur of conviction has gone.

So what should Modi now do? The BJP itself provides the answer. Vajpayee wasted no time in shifting from ideology to governance. In emulating his predecessor, Modi will give the secularists relief, which he is loath to do, but he will also open up more space for his party to govern. This is surely his more important concern, or isn't it?

PLASTICS & THE PLANET

here is no denying that 📑 plastics have delivered tremendous benefits over the past century, driving technological innovation, transforming health care, and fueling global economic growth. But as we now know, this progress has come at great cost.

The adverse consequences of our overreliance on plastics are well-documented. From the extraction and transport of the fossil fuels required to produce them, through the manufacturing process, to their everyday use and disposal, each stage of plastics' life cycle implies pollution and environmental degradation.

Plastic pollution endangers wildlife, damages ecosystems, and poses serious risks to human health. Microplastics, along with the toxic chemicals they contain, are found in the air we breathe, the food we eat, and can be absorbed through the skin. As plastic waste accumulates in oceans, rivers, and lakes. harmful chemicals contaminate the soil, disrupting plant life. While the full implications of nanoplastics for human health remain under-researched, it is clear that vulnerable groups children, women, impoverished communities, and workers in plastic production, waste management, and recycling - bear the brunt of these hazards.

The current debate, particularly concerning single-use plastics, often centers on disposal, prompting calls for "circular economy" solutions like recycling. But there are no truly "safe plastics," and product labels claiming otherwise are misleading and obscure the damage caused by oil and gas extraction, which accounts for 99% of the world's plastic. The toxins released during fossil-fuel extraction are known to harm the skin, eyes, and the respiratory, nervous, and gastrointestinal systems, as well as the liver and brain.

Plastic production is not only a direct threat to human health but also a major driver of climate change, accounting for roughly 3-8% of global greenhouse-gas (GHG) emissions. Yet, despite the existential dangers posed by the climate crisis, plastic production continues to surge. OECD estimates suggest that, if current trends persist, global plastic use – and the waste it generates – could nearly triple by 2060. Half of this waste is expected to end up in landfills, with less than 20% being recycled.

As the climate crisis worsens, reducing plastic pollution has never been more urgent, which is why negotiations for a global treaty have gained so much momentum

Even more alarmingly, recycled plastics are projected to account for just 12% of all plastic use in 2060, while plastic leakage to the environment is set to double, reaching 44 million tons annually, with devastating consequences for human health and natural ecosystems. If the industry's expansion plans are realised, plastic production could consume 31% of the planet's remaining carbon budget for limiting global warming to 1.5° Celsius.

This manufacturing surge is increasingly misaligned with projections of future demand. One study suggests that the global production of plastics like polypropylene may need to decrease by 18 million tons annually by 2030, owing to reduced demand from China and other countries. In fact, petrochemical companies are already grap pling with a global glut – yet another example of market forces failing to deliver efficient or even sensible outcomes.

With corporations under growing pressure to reduce GHG emissions, doubling down on fossil-fuel-based plastic production seems not just reckless but also economically shortsighted. Still, a recent study by the Institute for Energy Economics and Financial Analysis found that even in the face of potential credit downgrades, the world's largest petrochemical companies are "making major investments going in the wrong direction.

Given the stakes involved, it is clear that reducing plastic consumption alone will not be enough to protect human health, the environment, and the planet. As the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee on Plastic Pollution approaches its final meeting in Busan later this year, ongoing efforts to conclude a global treaty to end plastic pollution must confront the urgent need to curb production.

Regrettably, as with many international negotiations, resistance from powerful vested interests may block essential measures from making it into the final agreement. The Committee's April meeting in Ottawa was a case in point, revealing deep divisions over key strategies. The most contentious issue was the proposal to cap global plastic production, which faced fierce opposition from plastic manufacturers, their host countries, and oil and gas producers. These interest groups favoured a narrower approach focused on recycling. Some petrostates even argued that the treaty should cover only waste

To be sure, recycling is essential. But it cannot deliver the necessary reductions in plastic production and consumption, nor can it address the effects of plastic pollution on human health. Even in the bestcase scenario, without broader measures to control production. pollution will continue to surge causing severe health crises, exacerbating environmental degradation, and accelerating global warming.

Unsurprisingly, industry lobbies are pushing for a non-binding international plastic treaty without a clear legal mandate and enforceable commitments. Such treaties are bound to be come little more than vague promises and quickly fade into irrelevance.

Curbing plastic use and production is crucial to facilitate ing the behavioural changes needed for humanity to adapt to new ecological realities. If industry lobbies succeed in weakening the plastics treaty by excluding production limits or making its provisions non-binding, they will undermine efforts to combat climate change.

As the climate crisis wors ens, reducing plastic pollution has never been more urgent, which is why negotiations for a global treaty have gained so much momentum. But the negotiations deserve far more public attention and engagement. To ensure a more sustainable future, we should be pressuring our governments to commit to a binding international agreement that would limit and ultimately reduce plastic production and use.

SPECTRUM ECONOMY

The kind of reforms India needs

Dhurjati Mukherjee THE GOVERNMENT

MUST BE CAUTIOUS ABOUT THE RISE IN EDUCATED UNEMPLOYMENT

eform is a much talked Western world, the word 'reforms' done for modernisation of agrities. As such, prosperity has come the West, which means that such initiatives would boost growth. But here growth means high GDP, more billionaires, more profits for the private sector and not balanced development, reaching the lowest tiers of society. Also, reforms are somewhat synonymous with industrial growth and not growth in agriculture and agro-based industries.

Recently, while speaking at the ET World Leaders Forum, Professor Emeritus Nourie Roubini of the Stern School of Business observed that more reforms could usher the country's potential growth rate to 8%, thereby helping India to become a major economic power in a few years. In this connection, he outlined several reforms that need to be implemented, including those related to land and labour markets, bankruptcy, further financial inclusion, more investment in skills and human capital, reform of bureaucracy and provision of public services.

The learned economist, however, did not mention the need for India to formulate a policy of grassroots development that ensured welfare and well-being of the poorer sections of society. In the is quite common to signify changes needed in the socio-political and socio-economic systems. For India, the planners and political leaders should realise that the priority is not just growth but spreading the growth down to the grassroots.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, at the same conference, spoke about his usual theme that India was destined to be a developed country by 2047 through reforms. "Our promise is to reform, you promise to perform. Our promise is to give stable policies..." But he did not elaborate the areas of reform and how the needs of the common man would be addressed through these. He, however, identified four pillars for building the foundations of a developed country: the push for skilling and education, focus on making India a global food basket, thrust on green energy and the thrust to make the country a major tourism destination.

Though these may sound realistic presumptions, the poor allocation for education and the state of both school and higher education in the backward districts of the country may surprise any foreign analyst who hears tall talks and claims of political leaders. Besides, very little is being culture and agro products and helping small farmers to increase their incomes by providing appropriate technology.

Further, while Modi emphasised on popularising 'Made in India' products he did not outline what steps the government proposed to undertake. The figures reeled out by him of lifting people out of poverty may be difficult to believe though a small section may have seen an increase in incomes. As usual, the schemes launched or initiated by the government were mentioned but the meagre resources for most of these were not elaborated.

Meanwhile, it is worth mentioning the government's decision to create infrastructure for industry to set up factories in 12 cities with an investment of ₹28,600 crore with the largest one coming up near Dighi port in poll-bound Maharashtra. These projects have the potential to generate investment of over ₹1.5 lakh crore, according to Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal, who piloted the proposal.

It needs to be pointed out that capital-intensive industries have not had their desired effect in stimulating regional development and creation of job opportuni-effect on the micro and small enterprises, thereby maintaining stagnation of the rural economy.

Another aspect of reforms, not in the Western sense, would be to transform the rural sector through better opportunities for the impoverished and backward sections. Just carrying out a caste census would not help, instead a well laid out plan of the government's strategy on extremely backward sections must be formulated for their rehabilitation.

The whole strategy of reforms must keep in mind the prosperity of all sections of the population. Conducive atmosphere for boosting up self-employment must be created in all sectors and rural infrastructure improved in all possible ways.

The government must be cautious about the rise in educated unemployment. There is every possibility that unrest may increase among the youth if they are not provided proper opportunities whereas billionaires continue to rise. Futile talks of nationalism and Hindutva, the leaders should remember, will not divert the minds of youth and they may become more assertive if ignored.

Judicial triumph

Sir, This refers to "Kejriwal walks free" (Orissa POST, September 14). The bail granted to the Delhi Chief Minister in the excise policy case is a pivotal moment in both Delhi politics and Indian judiciary. The Supreme Court's decision to release Kejriwal, citing that prolonged incarceration amounts to unjust deprivation of liberty, underscores the role of the judiciary as a defender of individual rights. This case is not just about one leader, but about setting a precedent in ensuring justice is served fairly, especially when political interests are at stake. The ruling strengthens public confidence in our courts and reinforces that no one should be unjustly detained for political purposes. In the broader context of Delhi politics, Kejriwal's release is likely to have a significant impact on the political landscape. His return comes at a crucial time, potentially shifting the momentum ahead of upcoming elections. This is more than just a personal victory for Kejriwalit is a victory for democratic principles and the rule of law. It sends a clear message that our judiciary remains independent, safeguarding the rights of every citizen

Political opportunism

Sir, There was a time when in Indian political field there were excellent leaders and irrespective of their parties and ideologies worked for the welfare of the people and the nation. Sad that today experience, ability, prowess and intelligence have given way for instability, muscle and money power, crookedness and gimmicks In current times, the political scenario is abound with unpredictable occurrences and sad to say packed with politicians who turn out to be mere opportunists and sometimes go to any extent to achieve name and fame. Most of these politicians pose as leaders but lack leadership quality. We have one such who in spite of the constitutional post he bears defames the nation whenever he goes abroad. It is here that one remembers the words of Abraham Lincoln: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all of the people all of the time."

HOOLLONGAPAR GIBBON WILDLIFE SANCTUARY IN JORHAT DISTRICT OF ASSAM IS THE SOLE HABITAT FOR INDIA'S ONLY APE SPECIES

New Delhi, Sept 14: The Union Environment Ministry has granted in-principle approval to divert around 4.50 hectares of forest land in Assam, home to the endangered hoolock gibbon, for oil and gas exploration by a Vedanta Group company.

The project site is located within the ecosensitive zone of the sanctuary

Cairn Oil & Gas will carry out exploratory oil drilling in the ecosensitive zone of the Hoollongapar Gibbon Wildlife Sanctuary in Jorhat district, the sole habitat for India's only ape

The ministry's Forest Advisory Committee approved the diversion of 4.49 hectares of forest land during a meeting August 27, according to minutes published on the Parivesh portal.

Assam's Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (wildlife) and Chief Wildlife Warden recommended the clearance August 8, saying that the project served national interest.

The project site is located within the ecosensitive zone of the sanctuary, an area also used by wild elephants to move between the sanctuary and the Dessoi Valley Reserve Forest, the official noted. Conservation and management of wild animals in the ESZ (ecosensitive zone) is crucial for protection of elephants and other animal species. Therefore, appropriate scientific interventions shall have to be undertaken while implementing the above mentioned project in Dessoi Valley RF (Reserve Forest), the PCCF said.

The official assured that minimal tree felling would be done and no harm would come to the wildlife and their habitats.

A wildlife conservation and human-animal conflict management plan with a budget of ₹5.57 crore has also been submitted.

Recommending the proposal for Stage-1 clearance, the ministry panel also directed the state government to adhere to the safety guidelines outlined in a parliamentary report on the Baghjan blowout incident of May 2020.

THOUSANDS TREATED AT FREE 'ABHAYA' CLINIC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Kolkata, Sept 14: Forty-year-old Arpan Maity, a practising physician and an alumnus of RG Kar Medical College and Hospital, was busy collecting food items, clothes, raincoats, umbrellas and other materials at a makeshift counter near the state Health department headquarters where thousands of medics have been staging a sit-in for the last five days. From cots, bed sheets and raincoats to large umbrellas and food packets, the agitators are flooded with items from common people, Maity told PTI at the agitation site.

Till 2pm Saturday, 3,000 food packets have been served for free to people, not only to the protestors but also to local hawkers, rickshaw-pullers, autorickshaw drivers, journalists and other those who have come to the site to express solidarity with the movement, he said.

Prajakta Sikdar, another volunteer who is dividing her time between raising slogans and manning one of the four counters at the protest site, said that till 1.30pm Saturday, she had distributed around 600 vegetarian food packets among the people.

"Please don't hesitate... Tell me what you want, we have prepared all these packets for you. If you want to have cakes or other refreshments, that is also available," she was heard telling a person. A taxi driver was seen unloading hundreds of packets of food from the vehicle's boot, while three people in another vehicle were seen bringing folding cots to the site.

A well-wisher who is a teacher in Sodepur, has sent these 400 food packets but she can't identify herself, the taxi driver said while offering a packet to this corre-

Dibyendu Banerjee, a junior doctor manning the 'Abhaya' Clinic, which has been set up to treat patients at the site, said that till now 350 people, including policemen, have been treated. People are coming for checkup, treatment and our team of five physicians are attending to everyone and giving medicine for free if needed," he said.

From people taking part in the protest to families of hawkers and other locals -- the clinic, named in the memory of the rape-murder victim of RG Kar Hospital -- has been packed with patients since the crack of dawn.

"We had opened the clinic three days back. Over 500 people are visiting the clinic every day,' Banerjee said.

The Junior Doctors' Forum is spearheading the movement demanding justice for the medic and the resignation of Kolkata Police Commissioner Vineet Goyal and the health secretary over the incident.

PM MODI SOUNDS POLL BUGLE IN DODA RALLY

election rally in support of BJP candidates in Doda district of Jammu region, Modi said terrorism is taking its last breath and reiterated his government's promise of restoring statehood to J&K

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Jammu, Sept 14: Prime Minister Narendra Modi Saturday said that the upcoming Assembly election is a contest between the young leadership devoted to Jammu and Kashmir's development and the three dynastic families that "destroyed" the region by "encouraging" corruption and "depriving" the people of their rights.

However, he cautioned the people against bringing the NC, Congress and the PDP back to power, alleging their policies had prepared the ground for terrorism, stifled young leadership and "hollowed out" J&K, and stressed that the election would decide the future of Jammu and Kashmir which has "remained the target of foreign powers".

This was the maiden election rally by the Prime Minister in Jammu and Kashmir ahead of the first phase of the Assembly polls September 18, which will cover 24 seats spread across the three districts of Doda, Kishtwar and Ramban in Jammu and the south Kashmir districts of Anantnag, Pulwama, Shopian and Kulgam. Modi began his nearly 45-minute speech by welcoming the people who attended the rally in the Kashmiri language. "This time, the (Assembly) election will decide the future of Jammu and Kashmir, which has remained the target of foreign powers since Independence," he told the gathering.

itics made this beautiful region hollow from within. The political parties you trusted never cared for your children. They only cared for and projected their children and did not let new leadership grow," Modi added. The prime minister said his government focused on carving out a young leadership in Jammu and Kashmir soon after "we came to power at the Centre in 2014". "The youths of J&K used to face the brunt of terrorism. The parties that encouraged familism by misleading people enjoyed power and did not allow young leaders to take root. "Panchayat elections had not taken place since 2000 and Block Development Council and District Development Council polls had never taken place... After 2014, I tried to bring forth the young leadership, holding panchayat polls in 2018, BDC elections in 2019, and DDC in 2020.'

PM: BJP set for Haryana hat-trick

Kurukshetra (Haryana): Prime Minister Narendra Modi Saturday said Haryana has decided to bring the BJP to power for a third consecutive term, even as he asked people to be wary of the Congress' "falsehoods" terming the party anti-Dalit and anti-farmer. Kicking off his campaign for the October 5 assembly polls in Haryana, Modi told a rally here that the Congress' politics today has reduced to spreading "falsehoods and anarchy" in the country. "Today's Congress has become new (naya roop) form of urban Naxal. They do not feel any shame in speaking lies," Modi said. "When their lie is caught, they still feel no shame. The Congress speaks a new lie daily. It is attacking the country's unity regularly and is imposing 'Naxalwadi vichar' (Naxal thoughts)."

Sensitive inputs delaying appointments of CJs: Govt

■ The top court was hearing a plea filed by advocate Harsh Vibhore Singhal seeking a direction that a time limit be fixed for the Centre to notify the appointment of judges recommended by the apex court collegiums

It has also sought a direction to plug the 'zone of twilight' of there being no time for notifying the collegium's recommendations for the appointment of judges to the higher judiciary

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, Sept 14: The Centre has told the Supreme Court that "sensitive material" with the government is delaying the implementation of the SC Collegium's recommendations for appointments of chief justices to high courts.

General Attorney Venkatramani told a bench of Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra that he has received certain inputs from the Union government which are sensitive in nature. He also told the top court that revealing these issues in the public domain would neither be in the interest of the institution nor of the judges involved. "I would like to place the inputs and my suggestions in a sealed cover for perusal by the judges," Venkatramani told the bench. The matter has now been posted for hearing September 20.

The top court was hearing a plea filed by advocate Harsh Vibhore Singhal seeking a direction that a time limit be fixed for the Centre to notify the appointment of judges recommended by the apex court collegium. It has also sought a direction to plug the 'zone of twilight' of there being no time for notifying the collegium's recommendations for the appointment of judges to the higher judiciary.

The plea said that in the absence of a fixed time period, "the government arbitrarily delays notifying appointments thereby trampling upon judicial independence, imperilling the constitutional and democratic order and disparaging the majesty and sagacity of the court". The plea said if any name is not objected to or the appointments are not notified by the end of such fixed time period, then appointments of such judges must be taken as notified.

Assam: Oppn parties decry police firing during eviction

Guwahati, Sept 14: The Congress Saturday alleged that a party delegation was prevented by BJP members, "posing as members of certain organizations", from visiting the eviction site at Sonapur, on the outskirts of Guwahati where two persons were killed in police firing two days ago.

Opposition parties also decried the police firing incident, alleging failure of law and order situation in the state, while Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma asserted that the government will take 'strong action' to protect the interests of the tribal popu-

A drive in Kochutoli village to evict Bengali-speaking Muslim villagers had turned violent Thursday when a section of encroachers allegedly attacked the officials carrying out the exercise with sharp weapons and

Police opened fire to disperse the mob, resulting in the death of two protestors. In the clash,

33 people, including 22 police personnel, were injured, Director General of Police (DGP) GP Singh had said later. There were about 300 families of illegal settlers and since the drive began 151 families were evicted and 248 bighas of land have been cleared, he added. Several Congress MLAs and leaders had gone to the village under Sonapur revenue circle of Kamrup Metropolitan district to meet the locals on Saturday, but a group of people stopped their vehicles before reaching the site. cars and tried to walk to the site, came to listen to all sides. Talking to reporters near the site, he said, "As people's representatives, we will raise all genuine concerns of the people. But at the same time, police shooting people dead and evicting people without notice cannot be tolerated. Those who attacked the police must also face action." "We want a peaceful Assam. There is no law and order in the state anymore," Hussain asserted. The delegation returned from the area and visited the injured admitted at the Gauhati Medical College and Hospital to enquire about their condition.

Addressing a press conference here later, Hussain affirmed that the Congress does not support encroachment and that illegal settlers should be evicted, but it should be carried out in accordance with the guidelines laid down by courts with provision for rehabilitation.

Mumbai: CBI-FBI bust cybercrime syndicate

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, Sept 14: The CBI has arrested an alleged cyber criminal from Mumbai who had duped a US citizen of $4.5 lakh by posing as technical support, officials said Saturday.

In the action conducted under its ongoing crackdown on cyber criminals in Operation Chakra-3 in coordination with the USA's Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), the CBI dismantled a sophisticated virtual asset and bullion supported cyber crime net work that has been targeting victims in foreign countries since 2022, they said. The International Operations Division (IOD) of the CBI arrested accused Vishnu Rathi in Mumbai and brought him to Delhi, where he was produced before a magistrate Saturday. The magistrate sent him to five days of Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) custody. During searches conducted in the last two days at seven locations, the CBI seized 57 gold bars of 100 gm each, cash amount of ₹16 lakh, a mobile phone, laptop used to manage crypto currencies. details of lockers, and other incriminating documents from the premises of Rathi, they said. The agency found material showing that this transnational cyber-enabled financial crimes network was channelling proceeds of crime through virtual assets and bullion, they said. The CBI had registered the case on September 9 against Rathi and others on allegations that the accused conspired to target a US citizen by gaining unauthorised remote access to the victim's computer and bank account between June and August 2022.

Hindu marriage can't be dissolved as a contract: HC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Prayagraj (UP), Sept 14: The Allahabad High Court, in a significant judgement, has ruled that a Hindu marriage is not to be dissolved or terminated as a contract.

The sacrament based Hindu marriage may be dissolved (in law), in limited circumstances and too only on the strength of evidence led by the parties, it said. Allowing the appeal filed by a wife against dissolution of marriage, a division bench of justices Saumitra Dayal Singh and Donadi Ramesh was of the view that even in "granting the divorce on the strength of mutual consent, the learned court below may have dissolved the marriage between the parties only in the event of that consent continuing to exist on the date of the order being passed".

"Once the appellant claimed to have withdrawn her consent and that fact was on the record, it never became open to the learned court below to force the appellant to abide by the original consent given by her that too almost three years later," the court said. "To do that would be a travesty of justice," the bench added. The appeal was filed by the woman against a judgement passed by Additional district judge of Bulandshahar in 2011 allowing divorce petition (plaint) on behalf of her husband. The two got married February 2, 2006. At that time, the man was employed with the Indian Army. According to the plaint allegations, the woman deserted her husband in 2007. In 2008, the husband filed a petition for dissolution of marriage. In mediation proceedings, the estranged couple expressed their view to live separately. However, during the pendency of the suit, the woman changed her view and contested the suit denying allegations made against her on which a second mediation was preferred but it also failed because her husband refused to keep her with him.

out and appealed to us to join the talks, promising that we would receive the minutes of the meeting. We discussed among ourselves and agreed to join the meeting without live-streaming or video recording," the doctor said. "When we conveyed this to Minister of State for Health Chandrima Bhattacharya, we were told to leave the venue because it was too late and they had been waiting for us for three hours. We were unceremoniously asked to leave," the doctor added. Breaking down in tears before the camera, another doctor said this incident reflected the "true intentions" of the state government.

"It shows who is not serious about the talks," the doctor said.

Vote from space

Washington: Stranded on the International Space Station through February, NASA astronauts Sunita Williams and Butch Wilmore plan to vote in the November 5 US presidential election from space. "It's a very important duty that we have as citizens and (I am) looking forward to being able to vote from space, which is pretty cool," Williams, who is of Indian origin, said on a call with reporters Friday afternoon. Williams, 58, and Wilmore, 61, participated in a press conference Friday from the International Space Station (ISS), which has been their home since June. Their Boeing Starliner spacecraft ran into several problems midflight and could not bring them home from a planned 8-day voyage. American astronauts have been voting from space since 1997 when the Texas legislature passed a bill allowing NASA employees to vote from space, New York Post reported.

Mutiny allegations

A Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) team comprising investigation and technical officers visited the Adiala Jail to guestion Khan, the founder of the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf party, in connection with a controversial post on his official X account. A case has been registered against Khan by the FIA for inciting government officials to mutiny, the Dawn newspaper said citing sources.

Congo to hang 37

Kinshasa: A military court in Congo handed down death sentences Friday to 37 people, including three Americans, after convicting them on charges of taking part in a coup attempt. The defendants, most of them Congolese but also including a Briton, Belgian and Canadian, have five days to appeal the verdict on charges that included attempted coup, terrorism and criminal association. Fourteen people were acquitted in the trial which opened in June. The court convicted the 37 defendants and imposed "the harshest penalty, that of death" in the verdict delivered by the presiding judge, Maj Freddy Ehuma, at an open-air military court proceeding that was broadcast live on TV.

Russia warns Ukraine, West

Ukraine renews calls on West to approve long-range strikes on Russian territory

REUTERS

Moscow, Sept 14: Russian officials threatened the West Saturday with an uncontrolled escalation of war and Ukraine with the destruction of Kviv as Western leaders discussed whether to allow Ukraine to use their weapons for strikes deep into Russian territory.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said late Friday that his plan to achieve victory depended on Washington's decision, a clear reference to the authorisation for long-range strikes that Kyiv has long sought from NATO allies. Russia and Ukraine have exchanged prisoners of war, with each side Andriy Yermak, head of Zelenskyy's office, said on the Telegram messaging app Saturday: "Strong decisions are needed. Terror can be stopped by destroying the military facilities where it originates.

releasing 103 people

Kyiv has said such strikes are critical for its efforts to restrict Moscow's ability to attack Ukraine, but allies have so far been reluctant to permit them, citing fears Moscow will treat them as an escalation and doubting their efficiency.

While no official decision on the matter has been announced so far, Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Sergei Ryabkov alleged it had already been made and communicated to Kyiv, and that Moscow would have to respond with actions of its own.

"The decision has been made, the carte blanche and all indulgences have been given (to Kyiv), so we are ready for everything, the RIA news agency quoted Ryabkov as saying. "And we will react in a way that will not be

pretty.' 'MELTED SPOT'

Former Russian President Dmitry Medvedev, who now serves as deputy chairman of the country's security council, said the West was testing Russia's patience but it was not limitless. Medvedev said Ukraine's incursion into Russia's Kursk which region. Zelenskyy described as a successful operation slowing Russia's advance, already gave Russia formal grounds to use its nuclear arsenal.

He said that Moscow could either resort to nuclear weapons in the end, or use some of its non-nuclear but still deadly novel weapons for a large-scale attack.

"And that would be it. A giant, grey, melted spot instead of 'the mother of Russian cities'," he wrote on the Telegram messaging app, referring to Kyiv.

Iran blasts off year's 2nd satellite

US MILITARY ALLEGES THE LONG-RANGE BALLISTIC TECHNOLOGY USED TO PUT SATELLITES INTO ORBIT COULD ALSO ALLOW TEHRAN TO LAUNCH LONG-RANGE WEAPONS, POSSIBLY INCLUDING NUCLEAR WARHEADS

Tehran, Sept 14: Iran Saturday launched a research satellite into orbit with a rocket built by the Revolutionary Guards, state media reported.

The launch comes as the United States and European countries accuse Iran of transferring ballistic missiles to Russia that would be likely used in its war with Ukraine within weeks. Iran has denied this.

The Chamran-1 satellite, which was launched into space by the Qaem-100 satellite carrier, was put into a 550kilometre (340-mile) orbit and its first signals had been received, the media said, adding that the solid fuel carrier was designed and built by the Aerospace Force of the Revolutionary Guards.

The primary mission of the satellite, which weighs 60 kg (132 pounds), "is to test hardware and software systems for demonstrating orbital manoeuvring technology in height and phase, according to state media.

In January, Iranian media reported that the Sorayya satellite had been launched into a 750 km orbit, the highest by the country so far.

The US military alleges the long-range ballistic technology used to put satellites into orbit could also allow Tehran to launch long-range weapons, possibly including nuclear warheads.

Tehran denies its satellite activities are a cover for ballistic missile development and says it has never pursued the development of nuclear weapons.

Chamran-1's other mission was to "evaluate the cold gas propulsion subsystem in space systems and the performance of the navigation and attitude control subsystems", state media reported.

Iran, which has one of the biggest missile programmes in the Middle East, has suffered several failed satellite launches in recent years due to technical issues

India beat stubborn Pak 3rd win in a row for chess teams

HARMANPREET'S BRACE HANDS INDIA 2-1 WIN OVER PAKISTAN IN ACT HOCKEY

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Hulunbuir (China), Sept 14: Skipper Harmanpreet Singh made the difference as he converted two penalty corners to hand unbeaten India a close 2-1 win over arch-rivals Pakistan in their final league match of the Hero Asian Champions Trophy hockey tournament here

It was India's fifth consecutive win in the six-team roundrobin competition.

Pakistan took the lead through Ahmad Nadeem (8th minute) before Harmanpreet (13th, 19th) converted two penalty corners to lead India to win. It was Pakistan's first loss in this tour-

Both India and Pakistan have already qualified for the semifinals. The victory also enabled India to maintain their supremacy over Pakistan since 2016.

In their previous meeting at the Hangzhou Asian Games last year, India thrashed Pakistan 10-2. A few months before that. the Indians beat Pakistan 4-0 during the Chennai edition of

At the Asia Cup in Jakarta (2022), a relatively young Indian side held Pakistan to a 1-1 draw while at the 2021 ACT in Dhaka, India defeated Pakistan 4-3 to clinch the bronze medal.

As like any Indo-Pak hockey match, the first quarter saw endto-end action with both the teams giving their all to gain the bragging rights.

The Indians started brightly dominating the early share of exchanges but Pakistan grew in confidence as the match progressed. India were at the receiving end for the first time in drew the first blood. It was a selfless Hannan Shahid whose brilliant work from the midfield split the Indian defence and Nadeem found himself at the right place to direct the ball into the Indian goal. A stunned India kept up their composure and patiently built their attacks and secured their first penalty corner in the 13th minute and skipper Harmanpreet scored with a powerful drag-flick to the left of a hapless Pakistan goalkeeper Munneb. The Indians continued to press in the second quarter and gained their sec-

19th minute and once again Pakistan defence had no answer as Harmanpreet was bang on target as India went up 2-1.

While India were the better side in terms of possession in the second quarter, Pakistan also had their chances, penetrating the rival circle on quite a few

Just 45 seconds from half-time Pakistan had an opportunity to draw level through a penalty corner but they wasted the chance as Sufyan Khan's flick, which hit the top of the bar, was rejected for a raised ball.

The Indians sustained possession after the change of ends and secured their third penalty corner in the 37th minute, but Pakistan defended bravely.

Thereafter, a sustained spell of attacks helped Pakistanis to bag four penalty corners in quick succession but lacked the firepower to breach the Indian defence.

In the last quarter, both the sides stitched relentless attacks and India secured three more penalty corners but failed to

The match also witnessed a heated encounter between Harmanpreet and Pakistan's Ashraf Waheed Rana after the latter shouldered Jugraj Singh inside the Indian circle.

Jugraj was felled by the impact and was seen grimacing in pain. Harmanpreet and Jarmanpreet Singh were quick to counter the offender.

The on-field umpires and Pakistan captain Butt and other players of both teams rushed in to control the situation but Rana was shown yellow card, which resulted in a 10-minute suspension after the umpire went for a referral for a serious misconduct.

Men outwit Hungary B; women go past Switzerland AGENCIES

Budapest (Hungary), Sept 14: India men dropped their first point, but carried enough steam to beat Hungary 'B' 3.5-0.5 to maintain a clean slate in the ongoing 45th Chess Olympiad here.

In the open section, the hero for the Indian men was Arjun Erigaise who played a brilliant attacking game against Peter Prohazska and ended with a checkmate after a queen sacrifice. However, Vidit Gujrathi had to settle for a quick draw against Papp Gabor and it was the first time an Indian men's player failed to notch a win in this event.

But D Gukesh outclassed Adam Kozak, while R Praggnanandhaa made most of his chances in the endgame as Tamas Banusz was gradually outplayed.

Earlier, a shock defeat for D Harika on the top board did not deter the other Indian girls as R Vaishali, Divya Deshmukh and Vantika Agarwal scored crushing victories to ensure a 3-1 victory for the team that kept them in joint lead on six match points.

Harika lost to recent-migrant Alexandra Kosteniuk who gave up her Russian citizenship and ioined the Swiss team.

A former world women's champion Kosteniuk was in her elements and scored the full point after Harika misplayed the middle game that appeared even from the bird's eye-view.

It was a bit of a technical game from the white pieces as Ghazal made some unforced errors and did not quite recover.

Divya continued with her winning ways and clearly the Indian seemed to be having the time of her life on the chessboard.

After recently winning the World junior girls' championship, Divya scored a regulation win against Sofiia Hryzlova while on the fourth board Vantika proved much stronger than Mariia Manko.

The day also provided the first major upset in the Olympiad as fifth seed Holland were outdone by Italy 1-3 in the open section. Top Dutch star Anish Giri was on the receiving end in this encounter and that triggered their collapse.

With eight rounds still to come, as many as 16 teams maintained a clean slate and shared the lead with six points apiece.

The Indian men will take on Serbia in the next round. With Alexandr Predke and Alexey Sarana on the top two boards, the Indians will likely have a tough fight on hands even though they still are favourites to win the match.

Owen Coyle's men thus broke the Juggernauts' 569-day long unbeaten streak at their home in dominating fashion, courtesy of a brace from Farukh (48', 51') and a powerful strike from Chima (69'). An electrifying start at the Kalinga saw Samik Mitra thwart the hosts away with an early save. Shortly after, Farukh Choudhary's appeals for a spotkick were waved off by the referee, who subsequently pointed to the spot at the other end when Hugo Boumous went down under a soft challenge from Samik. Diego Mauricio scored from the spot to give Odisha the lead. Chennaiyin, however, responded strongly to going behind. First, Connor Shields saw an effort blocked midway through the half before Farukh shot narrowly wide from close range.

The Marina Machans picked up where they had left off immediately after the break and were rewarded for their persistence when Farukh tapped home the equaliser from close range. A bright spark throughout the first half, Farukh was left with the easiest of tasks after Shields burst into the box and laid the ball on a plate for the attacker.

Things got even better for Farukh and Chennaiyin seconds later, when the 27-year-old intercepted a wayward pass from Amrinder, kept his composure, and squeezed the ball in through team the lead. Sixty-nine minutes in, two of Chennaiyin FC's new signings combined to give fans a moment to remember. Barraging into the box, right-back Laldinliana Renthlei crossed the ball for Chima, who slammed a thunderous volley home on the halfturn, much to the delight of a jubilant Coyle on the sidelines. Roy Krishna pulled one back for Odisha in stoppage time, but Chennaiyin held onto their lead for maximum points.
